VOLLEYBALL AUSTRALIA MEDIA CONSENT NOTICE

INFORMATION FOR PARTICIPANTS, PARENTS AND GUARDIANS

Volleyball Australia may capture photographs, video footage, livestream footage, audio recordings and other media in connection with Volleyball Australia events, competitions, programs and activities.

This notice explains what media consent means when a participant is registered for a Volleyball Australia event, competition, program or activity.

This notice should be read together with Volleyball Australia's Photography and Filming Guidelines and Volleyball Australia's Privacy Policy.

WHEN MEDIA CONSENT MAY BE REQUESTED

Media consent may be requested through an event registration process, team entry form, school registration, club registration, accreditation process, participant agreement or other approved Volleyball Australia process.

In some cases, a participant may be registered by another person or organisation, such as a parent, guardian, teacher, school, club, coach, team manager or State/Territory Volleyball Association.

Where a school, club, team or other organisation registers a participant, Volleyball Australia may rely on the consent information provided through that registration process.

WHAT MEDIA CONSENT MEANS

Where media consent is provided, Volleyball Australia may capture and use photographs, video footage, livestream footage, audio recordings and other media of the participant in connection with Volleyball Australia events, competitions, programs and activities.

This may include media captured during competition, training, ceremonies, presentations, interviews, activations, venue operations and general event activity.

HOW MEDIA MAY BE USED

Media may be used by Volleyball Australia for purposes including:

- promoting Volleyball Australia, volleyball and beach volleyball;
- promoting events, competitions, programs and activities;
- event reporting and review;
- participation, performance, operational or engagement analysis;
- marketing and promotional material;
- publications, reports and presentations;
- media releases and editorial content;
- print and electronic media;
- event signage, displays and presentation screens;

- Volleyball Australia websites and event-specific websites;
- Volleyball Australia social media channels;
- livestream, broadcast and digital content;
- sponsor, partner, government and stakeholder reporting;
- historical, archival and record-keeping purposes.

USE OF NAME, SCHOOL, CLUB, TEAM OR AFFILIATION

Where relevant, media may be used with the participant's name, school, club, team, State/Territory Volleyball Association or other relevant affiliation for event, promotional, reporting, media or communication purposes.

SHARING MEDIA WITH THIRD PARTIES

Volleyball Australia may provide or make media available to authorised third parties where reasonably connected with the purposes described in this notice.
This may include:

- media outlets;
- photographers and videographers;
- broadcast and livestream partners;
- event delivery partners;
- commercial partners and sponsors;
- government partners;
- schools, clubs, teams and State/Territory Volleyball Associations;
- agencies, contractors and suppliers engaged by Volleyball Australia.

NO PAYMENT OR REMUNERATION

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, individuals will not receive payment, royalties, remuneration or other compensation for Volleyball Australia's capture or use of media in accordance with Volleyball Australia's Photography and Filming Guidelines.

PARTICIPANTS UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE

Where a participant is under 18 years of age, media consent must be provided by the participant's parent or guardian, or confirmed through an authorised school, club, team or registration process.

If a participant has been registered by a school, teacher, club, team manager or other organisation, parents and guardians should contact that organisation if they are unsure whether media consent has been provided.

IF CONSENT IS NOT PROVIDED

If media consent is not provided, Volleyball Australia will take reasonable steps to avoid capturing and using identifiable media of the participant where practicable.

However, a participant may still appear incidentally in crowd images, background footage, livestreams, broadcasts, wide-angle field-of-play footage or general event footage where it is not reasonably practicable to exclude them.

WITHDRAWAL OR CHANGE OF CONSENT

Media consent may be withdrawn or changed by notifying Volleyball Australia in writing.

Where consent is withdrawn, Volleyball Australia will take reasonable steps to stop future use of identifiable media of the participant where practicable.

However, Volleyball Australia may not be able to remove or recall media that has already been published, distributed, broadcast, printed, supplied to third parties or captured incidentally in crowd, background, field-of-play, livestream or general event footage.

PRIVACY

Volleyball Australia will collect, use, store and disclose personal information, including identifiable photographs and video footage, in accordance with Volleyball Australia's Privacy Policy.

Further information about how Volleyball Australia handles personal information is available in the Volleyball Australia Privacy Policy.

QUESTIONS OR CHANGES TO CONSENT

Questions about media consent, photography, filming, livestreaming or the use of participant images should be directed to Volleyball Australia or to the relevant event contact.

Where a participant has been registered by a school, club, team or other organisation, parents and guardians may also contact that organisation to confirm what consent was provided during registration.
